First Sunday Service

This informal café-style parade service has been an important part of the life of Brundall Church over the years. However, over the last year, it has become clear that it no longer meets a need and it has been decided to stop having the First Sunday service in the Memorial Hall and to move it back to St Laurence Church. It will still be an informal all-age service suitable for the whole family.

Do come and join us next week
